You are all invited to stay for a time of fellowship immediately following the service, which will be held in the Fellowship Hall (located directly behind the Sanctuary).

“Far more important in the long run than any particular strategy of racial reconciliation and harmony is that more and more Christians glory in the grace of the gospel. When we are thrilled by the unspeakable freedom of being right with God in spite of the magnitude of our sinful corruption—and that others of every race and ethnicity enjoy the same freedom with us—there will be a humility and a love and a zeal to magnify grace that dissolves ethnic hostilities.”

—John Piper, Bloodlines: Race, Cross, and the Christian
